

2011 Sarasota Medieval Fair

3rd Annual

Presented by Croteau Productions

Student Discovery Day

Friday, Nov. 18, 2011 ♦ 9:00am-3:00pm ♦ Rain or Shine

The Sarasota Medieval Fair is excited to announce the return of our 3rd annual Student Discovery Day on Friday, November 18, 2011 — A festival day set exclusively for students!

The Student Discovery Day offers an engaging learning experience for students, and is a perfect opportunity to see curriculum in action. Teachers are provided with classroom materials and activities prior to the festival to prepare students for a full Medieval Era experience!

WHEN: Friday, November 18, 2011 (Open 9am-3pm)
WHERE: Sarasota Fairgrounds – 3000 Ringling Blvd.; Sarasota, Florida 34237
COST: $5.00/student

- Schools will receive one FREE adult chaperone ticket for every 10 student tickets purchased. Additional chaperone tickets are $10.00. Bus drivers get in FREE and parking is FREE.
- PLUS, students will receive a FREE kids ticket ($8.95 value) at the end of their visit to come back to the festival for FREE that weekend (Nov. 19-20, 2011) with their families and friends!!!
- Schools who purchase a min. of 20 student tickets, may elect to receive a FREE 3'x3' blank cloth canvas. The purpose of the canvas is for the students to make a crest or design representing their class/school. Canvases will be displayed at the festival for all to see!!!
- Students will receive a FREE individual character biography card as they enter the park. Each character biography card represents a real person in history who had an essential role in this year's theme. The card provides unique facts about a specific person in history, what side they were on, what social class they were, and more. Students will be interactively immersed as history comes alive!
