Magic and Myth Come Alive During Mystical Realms Weekend at Sarasota Medieval Fair
Dates: November 1–30, Saturdays & Sundays
Location: Mallaranny Farms, Myakka City, FL (near Lakewood Ranch)

MYAKKA CITY, FL (Nov. 18, 2025) – The Sarasota Medieval Fair transforms into a fantasy realm this weekend as fairgoers are invited to embrace the magical and the mythical during Mystical Realms Weekend, taking place 22–23 November at Mallaranny Farms.

Guests are encouraged to dress as fairies, elves, gnomes, and other fantastical beings, as the fair's village takes on a whimsical holiday décor. Unique daily contests at the Chess Field include Best Magic Trick on Saturday and Mystical Costume Contest on Sunday to celebrate creativity and imagination among attendees of all ages.

"This is one of the most visually striking weekends we offer," said Jeremy Croteau, executive producer of the Sarasota Medieval Fair. "Our guests help bring the theme to life with their costumes, and the entire village feels like it's stepped out of a storybook."

As always, fairgoers can enjoy jousting, artisan markets, live music, interactive games, and the popular "Battle of Halidon Hill" at the human combat chess board. For details, visit www.SarasotaMedievalFair.com .

About the Sarasota Medieval Fair

Founded in 2005, the Sarasota Medieval Fair is an annual festival celebrating history, performance, and community on Florida's Gulf Coast. Held each November, it has become a cultural tradition, bringing thousands of visitors of all ages to our local area. Set in a vibrant outdoor setting, Mallaranny Farms comes alive with jousting, artisan vendors, live music, and immersive entertainment for the whole family.
